

Trail of Painted Ponies 2010 Signing Events

Artist Signing and Show & Sale, Klamath Falls, Oregon
Sunday, August 1 through Tuesday, August 31, 2010
10:00 AM to 5:00 PM
Artist Signing and Show & Sale
Favell Museum featuring Western Art & Indian Artifacts
125 West Main Street
Klamath Falls, OR 97601
(541) 882-9996

The Trail of Painted Ponies artist Lynn Bean will be meeting collectors and signing her figurines, as well as The Trail of Painted Ponies books, at the Favell Museum in Klamath Falls, Oregon, throughout the month of August 2010. She will be featuring signed figurines, Custom Painted Ponies, original artwork, stained glass, embroidery and leather purses for sale.

World Equestrian Festival, Lexington, Kentucky
Saturday, September 25 through Sunday, October 10, 2010
Artist Signing and Show & Sale
Kentucky Horse Park
4089 Iron Works Parkway
Lexington, KY 40511
(859) 254-0253

The Trail of Painted Ponies artists Lynn Bean, Lori Musil and Joani Giannine will be meeting collectors and signing their ponies, as well as The Trail of Painted Ponies books, at the World Equestrian Festival in Lexington, Kentucky from September 25 through October 10, 2010. Artists will be featuring their Custom Painted Ponies and fine art for sale.

Parke County Covered Bridge Festival, Bridgeton, Indiana
Friday, October 8 through Sunday, October 17, 2010
Artist Signing and Show & Sale
Case 1878 Barn
Bridgeton, IN
(765) 569-5226

The Trail of Painted Ponies artist Cheryl A. Harris will be at this ten day event which centers around 32 Covered Bridges in Parke County, Indiana. Meet Cheryl and visit her booth in the first space of the Case 1878 Barn for her original art and prints. She will be there for all ten days with her figurine "Keeper of the Sacred Fire." Signing fees are applicable.